PUBLIC NOTICE

Additional Guidance re: Bankruptcy Noticing Procedures

As set forth in the Court's Public Notice 24-01, the court will only notice bankruptcy case-related documents that are the court's responsibility to notice as required by the Federal and Local Rules. These changes primarily impact Trustees and their counsel who have previously utilized CM/ECF events and the BNC to notice these documents in the past.

Effective, October 21, 2024, the Court discontinued CM/ECF Trustee docket events that previously provided BNC notice. These events included but were not limited to:

- Motions (e.g., motions to dismiss or convert the case)
- Objections (e.g., objection to claim or objection to confirmation)
- Certain Notices (e.g., trustee's notice of proposed abandonment of property)

The proponent of any motion, application, or other requested relief is responsible for service of the pleading and notice as mandated by the Federal and Local Rules.

The list below provides additional guidance on the court's responsibilities regarding certain documents and pleadings. While it aims to clarify the court's noticing responsibilities, there may be documents and pleadings that require further explanation. Pursuant to the Clerk's discretion, the list is subject to modification. See Fed. R. Bankr. P. 2002. Should you have questions please contact the clerk's office at 602-682-4000 or email AZBml ALL DQA@azb.uscourts.gov.

Approved notice providers are listed on the judiciary's public website.

The Court will continue to monitor its noticing procedures and the use of BNC to ensure compliance with regulatory requirements and maintain cost-effectiveness.
